

*Is there therapy
beyond conversation?*

Logistics

Location: San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, CA. Students with special needs should contact the registrar.

Tuition per Module: Early Enrollment: $3,395 early registration for those who send in their application and non-refundable $75 application fee by July 15, 2011. Normal Registration: add $400 for a total of $3,795. Visa and MasterCard accepted. Repeating students may enroll for one half the cost of tuition. Limited student scholarships available.

CE Units: MFT and LCSW's: This course meets the qualifications for 115 hours of Continuing Education Units for MFT's and LCSW's for module one and module two respectively (Provider # 4355).

Nurses: Eva Geidt, RN, (Provider # 14707) is a co-sponsor of this training, which is approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, for 115 hours. Psychologists: The Institute is also approved as a Provider for MCEP (# HAK003), and is applying for approval for 50 hours for this specific training. Please check with Administrative Director for current status of application.

Weekend Schedule: Friday 12:30—5:30, Saturday 9:00—5:00, and Sunday: 9:00 - 3:00pm

Prerequisites: As this is an accelerated course, previous clinical training (two or more years of clinical experience) or permission from a member of the training staff is required.

Refund Policy: Any student may withdraw from the Training within one week (7 days) after the end of the first training weekend and receive an seventy (70) percent refund of the tuition. After that, no refunds will be granted. Students will be held to this agreement, regardless of future attendance and/or completion of the training.

For more information or to apply:
please contact

Administrative Director, Hakomi Institute of California · 415 839-6788, or contact@hakomicalifornia.org.

For Information about the curriculum or qualifications please contact:
Rob Fisher, MFT · 415 389-6340 (lead trainer)

Or download an application form from www.hakomicalifornia.org.

Advanced Methods in Hakomi Mindfulness Based Experiential Psychology

September, 2011—March, 2012
San Anselmo, CA

Artwork courtesy of Shiloh Sophia McCloud
www.shilohsophia.com

HAKOMI INSTITUTE OF CALIFORNIA

5758 Geary Blvd, #100, San Francisco, CA 94121 (415) 839-6788

Mailing Address Line 1
Mailing Address Line 2
Mailing Address Line 3
Mailing Address Line 4
Mailing Address Line 5

Please place
postage information here

HAKOMI INSTITUTE OF CALIFORNIA
presents

Visioning Her Life—Shiloh Sophia McCloud
www.shilohsophia.com

Professional Training in Hakomi Mindfulness Based Experiential Psychology

September, 2011 - March, 2012
San Anselmo, CA

"Hakomi presents some astounding methods for getting to core material. It is well grounded in theory and revolutionary in its results."

- Association of Humanistic Psychology
Newsletter

"A visionary contribution in bringing mindfulness to our therapeutic community."

-Daniel Siegel, M.D.,
author of The Developing Mind and The Mindful Brain

About Hakomi Mindfulness Based Experiential Psychology

The Hakomi Method of Experiential Psychotherapy is an elegant, comprehensive and highly effective approach to human change and development. Hakomi is an in-depth, mindfulness-based psychotherapeutic modality. Its techniques are effective throughout a wide range of therapeutic applications such as individual, couples and family therapy, and group work. It is backed by thousands of hours of clinical applications and volumes of evidence research into the neurological underpinnings of mindfulness and core psychological belief systems.

For over 30 years Hakomi has pioneered and integrated the use of mindfulness in the psychodynamic process. Hakomi utilizes the present moment as a rapid and experiential access route to unconscious material. Guided by the principles of Mindfulness and Non-violence, the Hakomi Method is a gentle, respectful, compassionate and thus powerful form of psychotherapy that uses the wisdom of the body to pursue core evolution and deepen therapy beyond insight and words. Hakomi follows Frieda Fromm Reichman's advice, "The patient needs an experience, not an explanation." Typical therapeutic outcomes include lasting change in deeply held emotional attitudes, beliefs and behavior.

This training represents the first of four separate modules. Each module includes didactic information, live and video demonstrations, experiential exercises, and an emphasis on specific clinical applications and skills development.

This first module covers the theory and techniques of the method. Module Two (to be offered at a later date) will teach state of the art approaches to the treatment of trauma, and Module Three will address maps of the psyche including assessment and intervention strategies based on a non-pathologizing character theory. Module Four will cover applications such as couples therapy, addictions, attachment issues and Recreating the Self model of positive psychology.

She Dances Her Gratitude— by Shiloh Sophia McCloud
www.shilohsophia.com

In this training you will learn:

Competency #1 The Therapeutic Relationship—How to join deeply, inspire clients to unfold, and use moment to moment interventions to address and heal attachment wounds.

Competency #2 Listening to the Unconscious—How to notice the unconscious in direct experience and non verbal signals. How to use the present moment and the body as rich sources of psychological information.

Competency #3 Deepening Therapy—How to achieve the depth and exploration that makes therapy come alive. Practical methods for deeply exploring the psyche safely working with all categories of experience: thoughts, beliefs, memories, sensations, impulses and emotions.

Competency #4 Using Mindfulness Psychodynamically—How to use mindfulness directly in the psychodynamic psychotherapy process, rather than as an adjunct treatment.

Competency #5 Working with Defenses, and Transformation of Core Material—How to elegantly work with resistance and defenses by supporting them. Transforming core models of the world.

Competency #6 Master Strokes—Working Practically with Transference and Countertransference Systems—How to work experientially with transference/countertransference enactments that open the core of the client's psyche.

"Hakomi has been a major force in promoting mindfulness in psychotherapy and body psychotherapy."
-Babette Rothschild, LCSW, author of The Body Remembers

"Hakomi is the absolute cutting edge of modern therapeutic technique."
-John Bradshaw, author of Bradshaw on The Family

Training Faculty

Scott Eaton, MFT, a Certified Hakomi Therapist and Trainer, has been facilitating groups and trainings in the U.S. and Europe for over 30 years. A licensed psychotherapist for 18 years, Scott specializes in gay and lesbian issues, spirituality, shame reduction, PTSD, work with anger and relationship dynamics. An avid world traveler, Scott has also been a long-standing teacher of meditation. You can email Scott at scotteaton@hakomicalifornia.org

Jon Eisman, CHT, is one of the Founding Members of the Hakomi Institute, and Director of Hakomi Institute of Oregon. Jon teaches throughout North America and Europe and is the creator of R-CS, Re-Creation of the Self, a powerful and innovative tool for working with psychological parts in therapy, in group work, and in spiritual practice. An Oregonian, Jon teaches frequently in the Bay Area. You can email Jon at joneisman@hakomicalifornia.org

Rob Fisher, MFT, is a psychotherapist, consultant and supervisor in private practice in Mill Valley. A Certified Hakomi Therapist and Trainer, Rob is also an adjunct professor at both CIIS and JFK University, where he teaches marriage and family therapy, and Hakomi, Body-centered psychotherapy. Rob is an internationally recognized expert in couples therapy. He is the author of Experiential Couples Therapy: A Guide for the Creative Pragmatist, published by Zeig/Tucker. Rob has been a Master Presenter at the Annual California Association of Marriage and Family Therapists Conference and a presenter at the USABP Annual, and Psychotherapy Networker Conferences. You can email Rob at robfisher@hakomicalifornia.org

Manuela Mischke-Reeds, MA, MFT, Certified Hakomi Therapist and Trainer, Somatic psychotherapist and Continuum™ Movement Teacher. Manuela leads professional trainings and workshops in the U.S., Australia and Germany. An adjunct professor at JFK University, and the Institute of Transpersonal Psychology she teaches mental health professionals Somatic approaches to Trauma and Attachment, and infant mental health. Manuela has specialized in her Hakomi approach to working with trauma clients and has counseled victims of trauma and survivors of political oppression and torture. A longtime student of Tibetan Buddhism, Manuela incorporates Buddhist psychology into her work. She maintains a private practice with individuals, couples, families and young children and groups and consults to professionals. You can email Manuela at manuelamr@hakomicalifornia.org.

Julie Murphy, R.A.S., Certified Hakomi Trainer and Practitioner, has 23 years of experience consulting, teaching and working in the Healing Arts. Director of Hakomi Santa Cruz, she designs curriculum and trains mental health professionals in the Hakomi Method in Santa Cruz, San Francisco and Australia. With a strong background in the fields of anthropology, contemplative psychology, attachment theory, massage therapy, Tibetan Buddhism, and poetry, Julie has presented at numerous conferences including the Hakomi Institute International, the AMTA, and the USABP Annual Conferences. Julie developed Embodied Writing™, a contemplative and somatic approach to creative writing and self-expression. You can email Julie at juliemurphy@hakomicalifornia.org

Starting September, 2011

"Hakomi is a beautiful expression of the partnership model: a way of healing that recognizes not only the essential partnership between body and mind, but between therapist and client."

Riane Eisler, author of The Chalice and the Blade, and Sacred Pleasures

"Hakomi is an excellent system for learning key emotional intelligence skills."

- Daniel Goleman, author of the bestseller Emotional Intelligence

Training Dates: Training dates and content subject to change.

September 9-11 2011	January 13-15, 2012
October 7-9, 2011	February 10-12, 2012
November 11-13 2011	March 9-11, 2012
December 9-11, 2011	